II. Regular Business

Co-Chair Lassie Moore reviewed outcomes from the Commission's September 26 City Council presentation, during which members shared several proposed recommendations. Returning to the process, the Commission will first focus on 2021 marijuana legislation policies. Subsequent presentations will be scheduled and additional research will be conducted pending guidance from the City Clerk.

Council Liaison JD Mangat and Staff Liaison Tammy Tucker also shared feedback that they received regarding the Commission's presentation.

Co-Chair Maya Walton provided a brief update regarding the Commission's mental health projects.

Co-Chair Andrea Lastiri-Montiel facilitated a discussion about Lafayette's 2021 Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration, which the Commission will hold on January 18, 2021. With the support of the Centaurus High School Student Council, a car parade and drive-in celebration will be coordinated in lieu of traditional events. Members also considered other social distancing protocols that will need to be taken, possible performers and speakers, and the general theme. The Commission also committed to making the event zero-waste, and will follow up with the Waste Reduction Advisory Committee after finalizing which activities will be a part of the event.

Staff Liaison Tammy Tucker briefly reviewed public process requirements, ensuring new members are aware of relevant policies and procedures.
