1. No public input at this meeting.

III. AGENDA ITEMS

A. Environmental Issues

Commissioner Suntali Donahue presented this item. She reviewed options for the Commission's participation in Lafayette's 2022 Earth Day event on April 30. Among other activities, the Commission will co-facilitate programming at the Outdoor Classroom and host an independent call for action. The Commission also discussed participating in a tree planting event alongside Lafayette schools to commemorate Earth Day.

The Commission will also reach out to youth boards in Louisville and Superior to identify possible service-learning projects and/or fundraisers to jointly host this spring to support those affected by the Marshall Fire.

B. Positive Police-Teen Relationships

Co-Chair Andrea Lastiri-Montiel presented this item. She invited the Commission to co-develop curriculum for pending meetings with Lafayette Police Officers this summer. Other strategies to foster positive police-teen relationships were also considered.

C. Mental Health

Co-Chair Matthew Hinojosa presented this item. He introduced representatives from Lafayette Communities That Care, who will co-plan a series of mental health focus groups with the Commission. A total of five focus groups will be offered, including sessions in Spanish and sessions specifically for youth. Relevant logistics, including the registration process, were considered.

D. Cesar Chavez Celebration

Co-Chair Amy Resendiz-Salazar presented this item. In lieu of hosting an independent event, the Commission agreed to host various educational activities to celebrate the life and legacy of Cesar Chavez at the Lafayette Public Library on April 2. Details will be solidified on February 16.
