IV. AGENDA ITEMS

A. Muse Community Studio Program

Co-Chair Josie Briggs introduced Fox Tracks Records CEO Max DeVincenzo and Consultant Kristen Davidson, who discussed a new music production workshop for Lafayette 8th-12th graders. Scheduled to be held in April, the workshop seeks to particularly provide an outlet for youth musicians interested in using music as a tool to discuss mental health. Future workshops may focus on songwriting and recording. Members shared recommendations regarding recruitment and effort. Additional recommendations will be shared in March.

B. Partnerships

Co-Chair Josie Briggs presented this item, discussing the Commission's respective work with the Lafayette Arts Hub and involvement in Lafayette's April 30 Earth Day event.

C. 2022 Cesar Chavez Celebration

Co-Chair Josie Briggs presented this item. Josie confirmed the Commission’s participation in an event for local elementary school students. Scheduled to be held on Saturday, April 2 from 1-5 pm at the Lafayette Public Library, the event will serve to celebrate Cesar Chavez, Dolores Huerta, and other civil rights activists. The Commission will specifically create and facilitate a scavenger hunt for kids that trace Cesar and Dolore’s March to Sacramento and read stories about the United Farmworkers Movement. Co-Chair Matthew Hinojosa and Commission Members Isa Brady and Suntali Donahue will co-develop related activities.

D. Mental Health Focus Groups & Parent Workshop

Co-Chair Josie Briggs helped to finalize dates for mental health focus groups that LYAC members will facilitate alongside Lafayette Communities That Care this spring. A workshop will also be facilitated for parents in May.

V. STAFF REPORT

None.

VI. COUNCIL REPORT

None.

VII. ADJOURN

A motion was made by Wyatt Lunz and seconded by Josie Hayes to adjourn the February 16, 2022 Lafayette Youth Advisory Commission meeting at 7:50 pm. The motion passed unanimously.
