IV. AGENDA ITEMS

A. Boulder County Aging Advisory Council Report

Carren Williams shared that due to the Marshall Fires if passed, Senate Bill 22-086- the Homestead Tax Extension and Consumer Debt Protection will allow an exemption if your house burns down to rebuild. Encouraged community members to sign up for Everbright.net for emergency notifications, know how to open your garage when electricity is no longer available, ask your homeowner's insurance provider about "insurance preparedness" on whether you are covered correctly, and have a solar-powered weather radio to help during emergencies.

V. NEW BUSINESS

A. Boulder County Housing

Bob Magin met with Kelly Reynolds, Senior Services Support Specialist from Boulder County Housing to ask about demographics and involvement at Josephine Commons. Senior Advisory Board members found the results informative. Guy Higgins made a motion and seconded by Joan Potterfield to have Bob Magin follow up with research to assist in recommendations for the Willoughby Corner project. A vote was taken, and the motion passed unanimously.
