Photo Agreement:

Lafayette Public Library has a small collection of local history photographs. A significant sample of these are scanned and easily viewed through the Library's catalog and web site. The photographs are available to the public for a specified use. Rights to the photographs belong to the Lafayette Public Library. Fees for the processing must be paid in advance.

Any printed or electronic reproduction for public or private showing must give credit to Lafayette Public Library.

Special permission must be obtained for any mass reproduction or publication.

The photos or reproductions may not be used for any purpose other than stated in the agreement.

Upon request, the user must provide a free copy of the publication(s) or item(s) containing the photographs.

The Lafayette Public Library reserves the right to limit the number of photographic copies; to ensure the use of the reproduced photographs is in good taste; charge a higher fee for copies intended for mass reproduction into formats such as posters, note cards, post cards, or any commercial display or product.
