Theme: A Year at Waneka Lake

The Lafayette Arts & Cultural Resources Department is hosting an open call for entry of artwork of all types and medium. The exhibit will hang at The Collective Community Art Center and the Lafayette Public Library from January 12 – March 5, 2023, and potentially at additional City locations.

This group exhibition will feature artwork made by a select group of local artists of all ages and levels of professional ability. Artists may submit up to 2 works for consideration. A jury will make final selections for the exhibit. Sculpture and wall-hung 3-dimensional media will be reviewed on a case by case, and space available basis.

Entries must show a clear relation to Waneka Lake in any season but need not focus on wildlife, landscape, or nature. For example, artworks may feature recreational, social, or cultural aspects of the ways we engage with Waneka Lake and the immediate surrounding area. Artists' implementation of the theme, technical skill, and over-all artistic merit will be considered when selecting the pieces to be exhibited. The Collective and the Library are City of Lafayette public spaces visited by people of all ages. All works must be appropriate for all-ages viewing.

Jury: The exhibit will be juried by a panel of Arts and other City Staff.

Fees: No entry fee required. Sales must be processed directly with the artist. Artists are responsible for filing their own sales tax.

Selected artist or a proxy must be able to deliver their artwork to The Collective by Monday, January 9, 2023. The work will hang for the entire duration of the exhibition.

Artists must complete the application form and submit photographs of their work. The jury reserves the right to limit the number of works per artist. Artistic merit and suitability for all ages will be taken into consideration when selecting artwork.
