* --Not Permitted
†--Uses permitted subject to the review process provided in Section 26-22.5-8
NOTES:
1. The purpose of a single-family dwelling in a mixed use building complex within the M1 zoning district is to allow for a dwelling unit for a caretaker, and/or watchman and their family.
2. Backyard chickens are approved as an accessory use for residential and school uses in the T-1, B-1, C-1, P and DR zoning districts.
3. Beekeeping is approved as an accessory use for residential and school uses in the T-1, B-1, C-1, and DR zoning districts.
4. Any use that is not specifically permitted, or permitted by special use review, in a particular zone district, shall be prohibited in such zone district, unless the Planning Director determines that (i) the proposed use is not specifically addressed and allowed in other zone districts; and (ii) the proposed use is sufficiently similar to a designated use that is otherwise allowed (by right or Special Use Review) in the zone district proposed for the use, such that the location of the use in that district would be consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 26.
5. Per Section 26-22.5, of the Code base stations, alternative tower structures and small cell facilities, and towers not in the right-of-way are special uses and base stations, alternative tower structures and small cell facilities within the right-of-way, and "eligible facilities" are permitted uses.
6. Miniature Pot Bellied Pigs and Miniature Goats are approved as an accessory use for Residential and School uses in the T-1, B-1, C-1 and DR Zoning Districts.
